this text supports student teachers nqts and practitioners in implementing the citizenship order in secondary schools to be introduced in september 2002 with a practical clear focus the authors provide an intellectual challenge argument and evidence to help the reader come to an informed view on the complex and controversial issues in each chapter well focused examples and strategies for use in the classroom

this book argues that the idea and institution of european citizenship is a transnational border crossing status rather than a postnational transformation of modern citizenship the essays in this work illustrate the various ways in which women in the middle east fall short of being vested with the rights and privileges that would define them as fully enfranchised citizens they offer an examination of national legislation on personal status penal law and labour the book analyzes the role of dual nationality in different fields of the law in particular national and eu law and offers a convincing argument for the minimum harmonization of european nationality laws the rough and tumble world of nineteenth century new orleans was a sanitation night mare with the city s many slaughterhouses dumping animal remains into neighboring backwaters when louisiana finally authorized a monopoly slaughterhouse to bring about sanitation reform many butchers felt disenfranchised from their livelihoods framing their case as an infringement of fundamental rights protected by the new amendment they flooded the lower courts with nearly 300 suits the surviving cases that reached the u s supreme court pitted the butchers right to labor against the state s police power to regulate public health the result was a controversial and long debated decision that for the first time addressed the meaning the import of the fourteenth amendment argues that the category of death was a central part of the concept of citizenship in the nineteenth century u s and that the particular form of that construction functioned to naturalize white males as ideal citizens
